City Council Salary Setting Commission Community Meetings

SAN JOSE, CA - The San José Council Salary Setting Commission announced its meeting schedule to gather input regarding compensation for the Mayor and City Council. Under the City Charter, the Council Salary Setting Commission is appointed by the Civil Service Commission and meets in odd-numbered years to establish compensation for the City's elected officials. The Commission makes recommendations to the City Council regarding its compensation, which the City Council must either accept or reject. The Commission will issue a report by April 30, 2011 that will recommend compensation and benefits for the Mayor and City Council beginning July 1, 2011 through June 30, 2013.

As a part of its process, the Commission invites comments during public meetings from current and former Mayors and members of the City Council, candidates from the 2010 City elections, other public officials, and members of the public. These meetings will be held:
